The Hide

The Hide

Howells Barn

- Howells Barn is a Cotswold stone barn, believed to date back to the 1830s. The property has been restored to an exceptionally high standard providing a naturally light home.
- The accommodation is laid out over three floors, with an open-plan reception area and views over the private gardens and grounds that surround this fantastic building.
- There is underfloor heating throughout the ground floor.
- Attached to the main barn is an annexe, providing additional accommodation, home office or similar uses.
- Within the grounds of approximately 2 acres is a spacious party/games barn, with a separate garage. Planning permission for additional extension has been granted.

The Hide

- The Hide sits on the shoreline overlooking one of the largest lakes within the Water Park. Briefly comprising kitchen, shower room and open-plan reception area/bedroom, glazed terraces and fantastic views over the 70 acre lake.

Directions (GL7 6BG)

From London

take the M4 westbound to J15 and turn onto the A345 which becomes the A419 heading northbound signposted towards Cirencester. Continue past the signs for Cricklade and after about 1 mile take the turn signposted Cotswold Water Park. Continue through the Water Park and over the crossroads at Ashton Keynes and after approximately 1 mile turn left into the Lower Mill Estate (if you get to the right turn into Somerford Keynes village you have gone too far). Continue through the automatic gates into the Lower Mill Estate, following signs to the Sales Barn and continue past and on your right over the bridge, and then continue to the gates of Howells Barn, which should automatically open.

From Cirencester

At the ring road by the fire station turn to the Love Lane Industrial Estate opposite the fire station. Continue through the Industrial Estate signposted towards Siddington and Somerford Keynes. After approximately 2 miles take the first right onto the B4696, almost immediately turn left signposted Lower Mill Estate and follow directions as above.
